

NEURAL MISFIRE

Hands turning into stone Calves decomposing Mouth being stitched Black lungs burning	2'11" - 3'06"
Betwixt light and coma Postictal depression Expressing themes of death Episodes of negation	3'06" - 4'00"
This world will be destroyed within hours I see dead trees everywhere I am insensitive to pleasurable stimuli Delusional misidentification	4'22" - 4'45"
Negation of the Self, neural misfiring I do not recognize those faces Or that face of an impostor Whose face is that in the mirror?	5'41" - 6'35"
Kidneys weakening Heart slowing down gradually Liver blowing to pieces Body without organs	6'35" - 7'28"
Dismember me Deliver me from my reactions And restore me To my true freedom	7'28" - 9'16"
